INSTRUCTIONS TO JUNIOR SUPERVISORS

1. Supervisors shall be in attendance at the place of the examination atleast Thirty Minutes before the setting the first paper and Fifteen Minutes before the setting of each subsequent paper.
2. In distributing question papers, Junior Supervisors shall begin to hand over the papers from the last candidate in the respective blocks.
3. Additional answer-book shall be given only when the book previously given for the whole paper or section is written in, after verifying it personally by the Senior Supervisor. Such cases are to be reported by the Senior Supervisor to the University on the very day. The Junior Supervisor is not allowed to supply an additional answer-book to the student without the permission of the Senior Supervisor, Junior Supervisors shall take particular care to collect all answer-books whether used or unused and shall see that no candidate is allowed to retain with him any blank answer-book after the warning bell is rung.
4. While the examination is going on, Junior supervisor shall carefully look after the block of candidates to which they are assigned.
5. Supervisor shall use the Utmost Vigilance to prevent copying or Communication by candidates with one another or with any other person.
6. Junior Supervisors :
 - i) shall not engage in conversation with candidates during the examination and they shall not read what candidates write;
 - ii) Shall not give any kind of expalnation connected with the questions set;
 - iii) Shall not do any private or office work during the hours of examination, nor shall they on any account admit outsiders to the place of the examination;
 - iv) shall ~~not~~ ^{keep} with them any spare copies of question papers after they have been delivered to the candidates;
 - v) shall see that no copy of the question paper is given to any one who is not a candidate appearing for the examination;
 - vi) shall see that all the candidates are given the proper question papers in accordance with the subjects they have offered for the examination.
 - vii) shall not allow any exchange of writing material, stencils, mathematical instruments, etc., when the examination is in progress.
7. One hour after the setting of the question paper, junior supervisor's shall go round the block they are in charge of and see that the candidates have made all the entries correctly on the front page of each answer-book supplied and have written correctly their seat numbers, the subject and the number of section on each answer-book. Whenever any additional book or books are supplied to candidates they shall also see that all the entries on the front page are properly made.
8. They shall see that no candidate in their block leaves the examination hall without giving back his answer-book or answer-books as the case may be, whether blank or written in.
9. Supervisors shall note down the numbers of such candidates as have given up their answer-books before the ringing of the warning bell at the end of the examination.
10. Candidates who give up their answer-books before the ringing of the warning bell shall be allowed to leave the hall. But after that, no candidate shall be allowed to leave it till the close of examination.
11. Junior supervisors should see that every supplement supplied to the candidates for writing answer must be initialled and dated by them.
12. At the ringing of the final bell, the junior Supervisors shall go to each candidate and collect from him all his answer-books. In doing so the Junior supervisors shall begin collecting the answer-book from the last seat in their blocks and when the collection work is over shall arrange them in two bundles, according to sections and in their serial order. They shall deliver the bundles personally together with their reports, to the Senior Supervisors and shall not leave the place of the examination without their permission.
13. Junier Supervisor should see that candidates has mention his/her Seat No. on his/her Question Paper.

14. Supervisors shall put down their number of the block allotted to them on the reports supplied to them and whenever their blocks are changed, they shall take a note of their new block and write down the number of the new block on the reports.
15. Junior Supervisors shall make three copies of the reports for each paper which has to be answered in one and the same language. Separate reports should be prepared for each subject when there are more than one allotted to one supervisor. Two of these shall be packed with the bundles containing the respective section of the answer-books. The third-copy of each report shall be handed separately to the Senior Supervisor for being sent to the University Office.
16. Supervisors shall carry out all instructions which may be given to them by their Senior Supervisors in regard to their work not covered by these rules.
17. Special books containing squared paper shall be given to candidates for answering questions on graphs.
18. Remuneration will only be paid if the work of the supervisors is satisfactory and only after the results of the examination have been declared. Deduction may be made from the remuneration for remissness in duty noticed or failure to observe any of foregoing instruction or instructions issued by the Senior Supervisors under 15 above.
